TITLE: Productivity, Costs and Profits: A Research Agenda for Wine Grape Production in New World Countries

SESSION ORGANIZER AND MODERATOR: Boris E Bravo-Ureta, University of Connecticut and Universidad de Talca.

PRESENTATION/PRESENTERS

A View from Argentina. Alejandro Gennari, Universidad Nacional de Cuyo (To Be Confirmed).

“Changing Wine-grape Profitability in Australia, as Revealed by Varietal Area and Regional Price Data”. Kym Anderson, University of Adelaide and Australian National University.

“Costs and Returns for Wine Grape Production in the Central Valley of Chile.” Roberto Jara-Rojas, Universidad de Talca.

”Costs and Returns for Wine Grape Production in California’s Southern San Joaquin Valley: Can Wine Grapes Compete with Almonds? Jim Lapsley, University of California-Davis.